Clarksville, Tennessee has been working very hard to create a memorable Holiday Experience for everyone who visits them during the holidays. The dazzling light displays that adorn downtown Clarksville are sure to elevate your Christmas Spirit! The already quaint historic city transforms into Hallmark-worthy scenes during the holidays. Honor classic Christmas traditions or create new ones. Experience fun activities like performances, shopping, and light shows.

There is so much to see and do in the area that we had a hard time trying to fit everything into this great trip!

This Year's Christmas Trip Is Happening Earlier So We Can Take Advantage of Better Pricing For You And Also Not Get To Close To Christmas So You Can Have More Time To Celebrate With Your Families!

We do want you to know that working this far out to plan such a fun trip with so many events and experiences that there is always a chance that some details can change in the future do to many different circumstances. So this itinerary should be considered a guideline with the understanding that we might have to make a few adjustments in the future.

NOVEMBER 27
THROUGH
DECEMBER 2

Day 1 – We take off for Macon, GA where we will stay overnight at the Marriott Macon City Center. Dinner is included this evening at ever popular Fish N' Pig – Waterfront Dining in Middle Georgia!

Day 2 – We start the day with a Full Breakfast included at hotel. Depart Macon for Clarksville, TN – with lunch stop on own en route. Upon arrival in Clarksville we will check into the Holiday Inn. After we have had a breif rest at the hotel we will head out to a local venue for dinner. After your bellies are full, it's time to walk off a little of that meal at the Christmas on the Cumberland light display. With over a million lights on display, you will truly be in a winter wonderland! Grab a hot cocoa and stroll through the lights or just enjoy the Christmas carolers from our local high schools and churches.

Day 3 – Start the day with a wonderful catered breakfast. Be sure to warm up those vocal cords for a wonderful Christmas Carol sing along. Join in by wearing your ugly Christmas sweater. We will be judging for the best ugly sweater in the group! Who knows... you may win the prize!

After breakfast, head to downtown Clarksville for a short driving tour before settling in at the Roxy Regional Theatre for a holiday classic stage production.

After the show, stroll through downtown Clarksville to do a little shopping and have lunch on your own in one of our local restaurants. Don't forget to take your stocking with you!! You'll want to visit the list of participating stores that will "stuff your stocking."

This afternoon we'll head to Beachaven Winery next for a tour and tasting. You will be greeted with a glass of hot mulled wine to enjoy. We will learn about the wine making process, taste 4 different samples in a flight of wine! Oh, don't forget to get your stocking stuffer from their amazing gift shop.

We're back at the hotel for a brief rest then back on the coach for dinner. Let the Christmas cheer continue tonight with a night full of lights, food, and great music. First, we will go to Oak Grove Gaming for a delicious dinner event. We will enjoy a traditional holiday meal before being entertained by the songs and sounds of Passenger Creek. This group of talented bluegrass musicians will deliver an excited evening of traditional bluegrass tunes, as well as your holiday favorites. Who knows, we may even have a jolly guest join us!

After dinner, head to the Clarksville Speedway for their Holiday Drive-Thru Christmas Lights Dispalyl!

NOVEMBER 27
THROUGH

Day 4 – Full buffet breakfast included at hotel.

Country Music fans will be excited for all that is in store today. We will drive an hour south to the tiny town of Bon Aqua, Tennessee, home of the Johnny Cash's Storyteller Hideaway Farm! Owned by Johnny Cash for more than 30 years, he commonly referred to the farm as the “center of my universe.” From the holiday decorations to the farmhouse and the legendary “One Piece at a Time Car,” Johnny Cash Fans will be delighted by this stop.

In 1976, Johnny Cash filmed half of his annual televised Christmas special at the farm. Today, we will go to the Storyteller Museum for a Christmas show featuring scenes from that television special and live music from Johnny's nephew, Mark Alan Cash. It will be a wonderful morning of nostalgia and music that will leave you delighted and ready for Christmas. A catered lunch will be included.

Next, we will head to Miss Lucille's Marketplace for a unique shopping experience. They have a variety of merchandise ranging from vintage finds, handmade goods, rare antiques, gift items, and new upholstered furniture. The marketplace offers shopping carts for all your finds, wide aisles because you can expect a crowd, and handicap accessibility. With over 200 vendors, you might need a break or a bite, so stop by the in-store cafe for some coffee or dessert.

Dinner tonight will be at a local venue, prior to our headliner entertainment, The Frontmen of Country Music. The Frontmen features the dynamic voices of 90's country legends: Richie McDonald (formerly of Lonestar), Larry Stewart (of Restless Heart) and Tim Rushlow (formerly of Little Texas). Stewart, Rushlow and McDonald have collectively sold over 30 million records and had over 30 major hits between them. They have a chemistry and brotherhood seldom matched and they have logged the travel miles to prove it, wowing audiences around the globe with their brand of highly successful intimate unplugged shows. Powerhouse hits performed by the Frontmen of Country include Restless Heart classics, “The Bluest Eyes in Texas,” “That Rock Won't Roll,” “I'll Still Be Loving You” and “Why Does It Have to Be (Wrong or Right)”.

Lonestar smashes such as “Amazed,” “Smile,” and “I'm Already There”, plus Little Texas hits including “God Blessed Texas,” “Amy's Back in Austin,” and “What Might Have Been”. These songs and many others included in their shows are the soundtrack of a generation.

For tonight's performance, they will include a host of their classic Christmas tunes!
